William Shakespeare 1564–1616

When and where was Shakespeare born?

Shakespeare was born in April 1564 in Stratford-upon-Avon. At that time, Stratford <sup>1</sup> had (have) a population of about 1,000, but just after his birth, 200 people <sup>2</sup> were killed (kill) by the plague. Fortunately, William survived. His father, John Shakespeare, was a wealthy wool-trader who <sup>3</sup> owned (own) three houses in the town. In the 1500s, it used to take two days to ride the 100 miles from Stratford to London.

Did Shakespeare go to school?

Shakespeare <sup>4</sup> attended (go) to his local grammar school from the age of seven until 15. Only boys <sup>5</sup> attended (attend) school in the 16th century. They <sup>6</sup> taught (teach) Latin and had to memorize stories from history.

Did Shakespeare marry?

Shakespeare <sup>7</sup> married (marry) Anne Hathaway, a farmer's daughter, in 1582, when he was just 18 years old. Anne was 28. They had three children: Susanna in 1583, and twins, Judith and Hamnet, in 1585. Hamnet <sup>8</sup> died (die) of the Black Plague in 1596 when Shakespeare <sup>9</sup> was living (live) and working in London.

What did Shakespeare do in London?

He <sup>10</sup> _____ (come) to London in about 1590 and by 1592 he <sup>11</sup> _____ (become) a well-known actor and playwright. One of his first plays, Henry VI, <sup>12</sup> _____ (perform) in the Rose Theatre in 1591. Then for two years, from 1592–1594, theatres were closed because of the plague. This was when Shakespeare <sup>13</sup> _____ (write) most of his poetry. Most of his 37 plays <sup>14</sup> _____ (write) between 1594 and 1613 after he <sup>15</sup> _____ (join) an acting company called The Lord Chamberlain's Men. The actors often used to perform for Elizabeth I. In 1597, they <sup>16</sup> _____ (buy) £10 shares in a new theatre, the Globe. This theatre was, and still is, a huge success.

Did Shakespeare ever visit Italy?

Six of Shakespeare's plays have an Italian background, including Romeo and Juliet and The Merchant of Venice. Because of this, many people believed that he <sup>17</sup> _____ (visit) Italy, but there is no evidence of this.

Was Shakespeare famous in his own lifetime? When did he die?

He was famous during his lifetime. His plays and poems <sup>18</sup> _____ (hold) in high regard by other writers. He died on April 23, 1616 in Stratford and he <sup>19</sup> _____ (bury) in Holy Trinity church. It surprises many people that in his will the only thing he <sup>20</sup> _____ (leave) his unfortunate wife was their 'second best bed'!

Shakespeare caused an air crash?!

- Read the introduction to a strange story. Why did the plane crash? Can you think how Shakespeare caused it? Use your imagination.

How Shakespeare caused an air crash

On October 4, 1960, a Lockheed Electra plane was taking off from Boston Airport in the US when a flock of about 20,000 starlings suddenly flew into its path. The plane crashed into the sea and 62 people were killed. The birds had choked the engines of the plane and brought it down. Tragically, only 19 people survived.

So ... what is the link to Shakespeare?

-  4.3 Listen and find out how this tragedy can be blamed on Shakespeare. Answer the questions.
  - Who is Eugene Schieffelin?
  - Who was he obsessed by?
  - What did he do as a result of his obsession?
  - How did this lead to two disasters?
- Identify all the past tenses in the introduction in exercise 4. Why are they used?

FINALLY ... reciting a poem

8 4.8 Listen to Henry King's sad story. Practise it and recite it as a class. What do you notice about the pronunciation and spelling of the highlighted words?

THE UNFORTUNATE TALE OF HENRY KING

by: Hilaire Belloc

The chief defect of Henry King
 Was chewing little bits of string.
 At last he swallowed some which tied
 Itself in ugly knots inside.
 Physicians of the utmost fame
 Were called at once; but when they came
 They answered, as they took their fees,
 'There is no cure for this disease.
 Henry will very soon be dead.'
 His parents stood about his bed
 Lamenting his untimely death,
 When Henry, with his latest breath,
 Cried 'Oh, my friends, be warned by me,
 That Breakfast, Dinner, Lunch, and Tea
 Are all the human frame requires ...'
 With that, the wretched child expires.

The Picture of Dorian Gray – by Oscar Wilde

1 Read about Oscar Wilde. Answer the questions.

- How many novels did he write?
- What else did he write?
- What is the theme of The Picture of Dorian Gray?
- Was it an immediate success?

Oscar Wilde (1854–1900) was an Irish writer who became one of London's most popular playwrights in the late 19th century. He wrote just one novel, The Picture of Dorian Gray. At first, this was very badly received, but years later, after Wilde's death, it was finally recognized as a great classic. Wilde always defended Dorian Gray, saying that 'the idea of a young man selling his soul in exchange for eternal youth' was 'old in the history of literature'. Over the years, there have been many adaptations for stage and film.

2 Look at the list of characters. The setting is late 19th century London. Guess what happens in the story.

The Picture of Dorian Gray

by Oscar Wilde

London, late 19th century

1 Basil Hallward was working in his studio on a portrait of a beautiful young man, when he was visited by his pleasure-loving friend, Lord Henry Wotton. Henry was very impressed by the portrait and wanted to meet this charming youth, Dorian Gray. This worried Basil.

4 Dorian and Henry soon became great friends and Dorian began to seek new pleasures around London. One day, he confided to Henry that he had been to an old Shakespearian theatre in the East End, and fallen in love with 'Juliet', a beautiful young actress called Sibyl Vane.

7 Dorian left Sibyl and walked the streets. Arriving home at dawn, his eye caught the portrait and he jumped back in horror. The face had changed – his soft expression had become hard and cruel. Suddenly he recalled what he'd said in Basil's studio. Dorian was afraid!

10 Basil's body lay beneath the portrait, which was now sweating blood. A cruel and desperate Dorian contacted a former doctor friend, Alan Campbell, and managed to blackmail the horrified man into helping him get rid of Basil's body.

The characters

Dorian Gray: a wealthy, cultured, extremely handsome young man

Basil Hallward: a well-known portrait painter

Lord Henry Wotton: a pleasure-seeking Oxford University friend of Basil's

Sibyl Vane: a young Shakespearean actress

Dr Alan Campbell: former friend of Dorian

Mrs Vane: Sibyl's mother

James Vane: Sibyl's brother, a sailor

2 At that moment, Dorian arrived and, to Basil's distress, invited Henry to stay and watch. Immediately Henry started to charm Dorian with his clever ideas about life. Basil continued painting, but Dorian was tired and went into the garden. Henry followed.

3 Dorian listened wide-eyed to Henry's words about the horrors of old age. He had never thought about this before. He viewed his youthful self in the finished portrait and felt troubled. It would never grow old and ugly. He would sell his soul to remain young forever, like the portrait.

5 Sibyl lived with her poor mother and brother James, who was preparing to sail to Australia. James was frightened for his beloved sister. She had told them of her great love of 'Prince Charming', whose real name she did not know, but who came to see her play each night.

6 Finally, Dorian asked Sibyl to marry him. He invited Henry and Basil to see her act so that they could see why he had fallen for her. She looked lovely as Juliet. Then she spoke ... her acting was terrible, meaningless. Dorian, embarrassed and furious, ended the engagement.

8 Next day, Dorian approached the portrait, sick with fear. He was gazing at it with disbelief when Lord Henry arrived. Dorian told him that he'd now decided to marry Sibyl after all. Henry gasped! Dorian hadn't received his note – Sibyl was dead!

9 Years passed. Dorian tried to drown his guilt in a life of pleasure and scandal. Basil came to confront him about his evil ways, and reacted with horror when Dorian revealed the now hideous portrait. In a fit of rage, Dorian blamed Basil for all his suffering, and stabbed his friend to death.

11 Dorian tried to forget Basil and the portrait. Again he threw himself into his decadent life. One night in a pub by the river, a sailor grabbed him from behind. It was Sibyl's brother, James! But how could this youthful-looking man be Dorian? James ran off in fear.

12 Finally, Dorian had suffered enough. He wanted his old life back. He went to see the portrait. To his horror, it had become even more repulsive. He had to destroy it. He took a knife and stabbed the picture ... The police found the body of an ugly, wrinkled old man beneath a perfect portrait.

- 3 Don't ask difficult questions.
- 4 She used to throw it out of the window.
- 5 He didn't die, but he was blinded.
- 6 They lived happily ever after.

In your own words

Make some notes about your favourite childhood story. Tell it to your partner or the class in your own words and explain why you like it.

Everyday English Giving opinions

- 1 4.12 Read and listen to the conversation between three people. What's it about? Which two people agree with each other?

- A So, what do you think of the latest Bond movie? It's really great, isn't it?
B Definitely! I think it's absolutely fantastic!
C Mmm. D'you think so? I'm not so sure. It wasn't as good as the last one.
B Oh yes, it was. I thought it was much more exciting.
C It was OK, but it wasn't that good. My favourite will always be Skyfall.
A Why? Because Daniel Craig was Bond?
C No, of course not, but he does make a pretty good Bond, doesn't he?
B Pretty good? He's absolutely brilliant.
A Yeah, he's a cool guy. Do you two have a favourite Bond?
C Me, no, not really. They're all so different.
B For me it's Sean Connery – surely he's the best? He's the original. I've got the whole box set of all the Bond movies and he was definitely the best.
A I totally agree. He's the definitive James Bond. I love his Scottish accent.
C Well, I do too, but you're only saying he's the best because he was the first. Who d'you think the next Bond will be?
A I've no idea.
B Maybe they'll have a female Bond one day – Jemima Bond!!
C Now, that's something I could be really enthusiastic about! Dum-di-dum dum ... !! Jemima Bond saves the world!

- 2 4.12 Listen again to the conversation. Answer the questions.
- A and B agree with each other. They express strong opinions. Find examples of the words they use.
  - C is not so sure and is less enthusiastic. What are her actual words?
